The meeting starts badly, but ends well.

1 He arrives late; he calls them by their first names he gives his opinion too strongly about meat eaters; he doesn't say anything positive about the food; he doesn't offer to help with the washing-up; he doesn't find out before meeting him if the father likes football; he wasn't very good at answering questions about himself. His answers are very short, so the conversation dies.

2 He asks to see photos of Suzy as a child and he says she looked 'sweet'.
